THE CHINA DIRECTORY. This is the THIRTY-FIRST ANNUAL INSUE and will be found, as usual, to show an advance on preceding years both in fullness and accuracy

The DIRECTORY covers the whole of the ports and cities of the Far East, from Penang to Vladivostock, in which Europeans reside. Not only is the Directory as fall and complete in each case as it can be made, but each Colony, Port, or Settlement is prefaced by a DESCRIP TION, carefully revised each year, some of which will serve as accurate Guides for the Tourist giving every detail in connection with the places, their History, Topography, Ve. &c. The Information afforded in these Descriptions alone would suffice to fill an ordinary volume, consisting of over Eighty highly interesting articles, packed with facts concisely set out, and containing statistics of the TRADE of each Coun-

We have it on good authority that five of the pirate float have been courful by the guadinata sent out to search, for them, and that six'y of the crew were ar ested, and handed over to the Authorities at Ningpo. It is stated that the pirates resisted bravely to the last. The price of rice is still high, and the authorities hav i sned anoth 'r problamation ordering doulers not to raise the price any higher, threatentur them with arrest if the order is discheved. This has had the effect of staving a further rise in price, but we hear that dealers are losing soma 15 cents a pioul in consequence on their

To our account of the fire which took, pi ce hat week in the city we explained the cause of it, but it has been otherwise represented to the Authorities, and on the steength of this they have issued still another proclamation prohibitno kerosine oil was used in the house where the fire originated, but it suited those who reported it to make out that it was so, in preference to making mention of the Hun-bui lottery, and the report being ascented as a reet the proclamation orders that all maine this oil shull be at once arrested; to which end the gamen ruppers are to bearmed with wireants to arrest those offending. The Authorities are complaining very bittorly that their orders in regard to the disuga of kerosine have not been tearried out in their entirety, but it is well known that their ire would have been for greater had they known that the flue-had lettery was being ourried on with as much success as ever. The new edict regarding kerosine oil at this particular time suited tho yamen runners remarkably well and they will have had a fine opportunity of making money to meet the expenses of their Now Year fautivities.

Gloomy though our accounts of the sattle ment were at the time of the last China New Year, they are much worse this. Certainly the anks, lately reported as having suspended payneut, have, by compromise, settled with their oreditors, but the traders and shop-keepers have not -got over their difficulties so ensilv. 'and hose who have managed to carry their accounts yar have done so at most neurious rates or terest. According to accounts reaching the from the city, this China New Year appears to have come round on the majority of the ople as a misery rather than as a time refolding -for too many find themselves enined. Hope, which buoyed up many, of the improvenious at the time of the est set amont, has turned into despuir, and the name by of homeless families rouning about the stricts in a state of atter destitution is melanchily to witness. Very many of these families were for perly in comfortable pircumstances, and there are also those of the labouring classes the are willing to work but cannot obtain The manufacture of the new make of native cloth his afforded relief to thousands, and so, to a certain extant, lessuand the existing misery, but the number after all those who have so bean able to earn their. living represents but a small percentage of the form population. Much has been done by the wealthy in the city, as also by the government, to relieve the present distress, but their help appears to be inadequate to the calls for help. and the severe weather and dearness of rice added to their difficulties in pondering relief. What his been done in this way has undoubtedly, so far. prevented anything like disorder springing up. but it will be an auxious time to the Authorities entil the weather breaks and rice becomes more pl ntiful and chanper.—Echo.
